

Use the small blocks on every page. Put the blocks flat inside the shape, on the lines. Blocks may not overlap or stick out. A shape is covered when every little triangle is under a block.

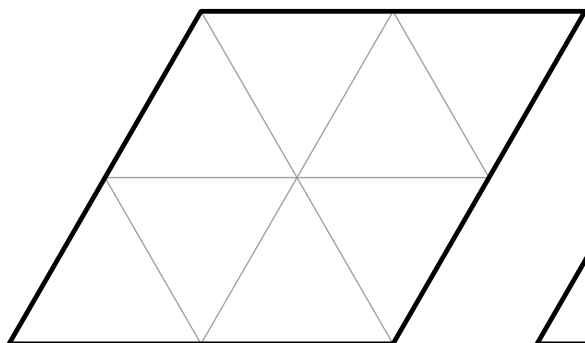

Problem 1: Cover each shape with blue blocks only. Can you do it?

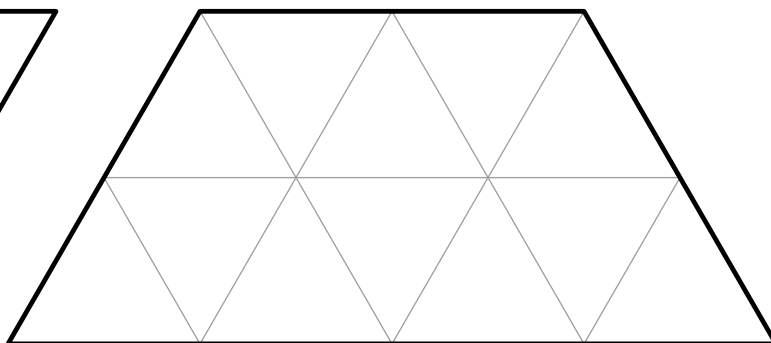

yes no

yes no

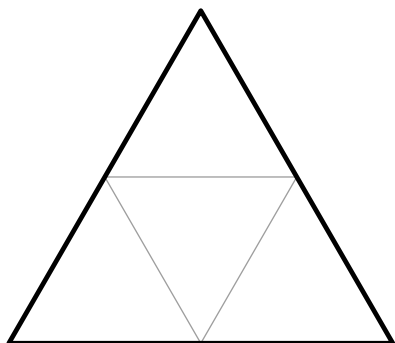

yes no

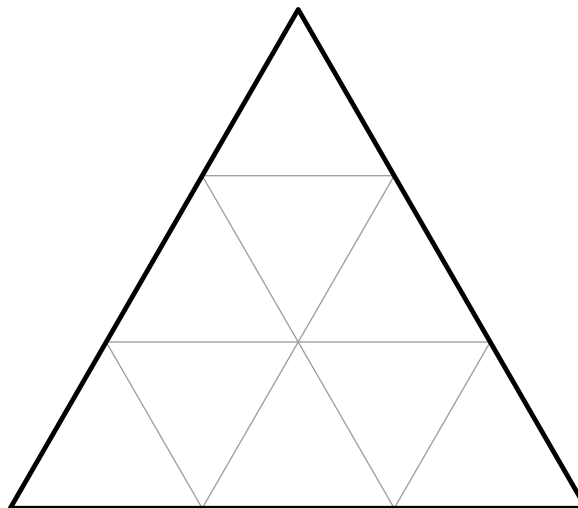

yes no

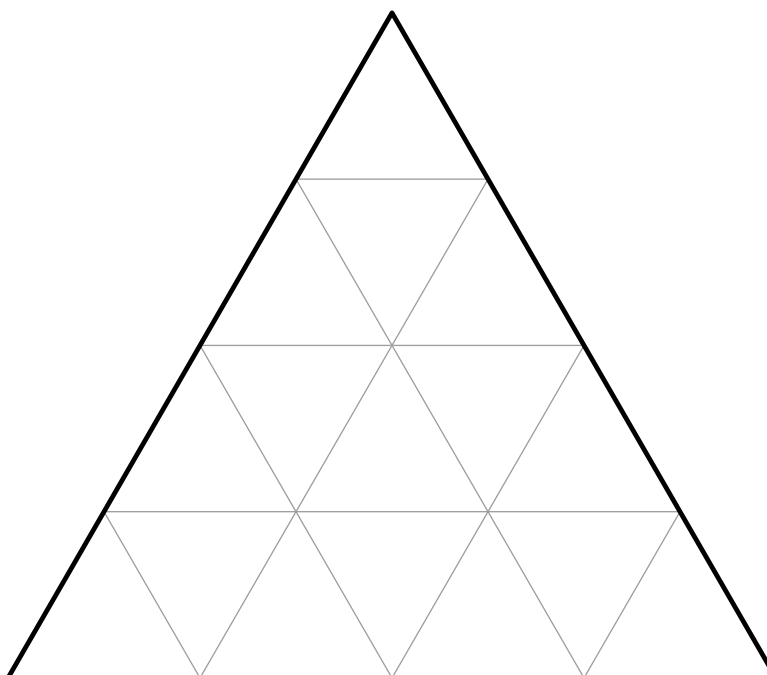

Problem 2: Cover each triangle with blue blocks and green triangles. Use as few green triangles as you can.

How many greens?

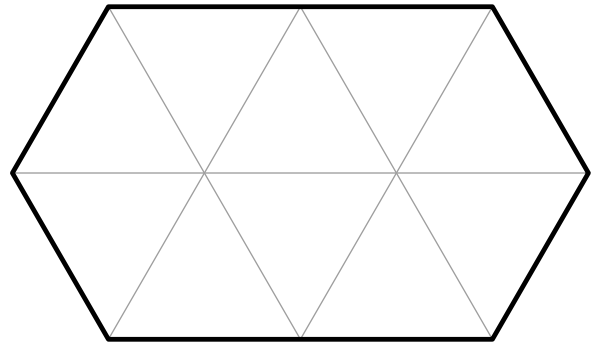

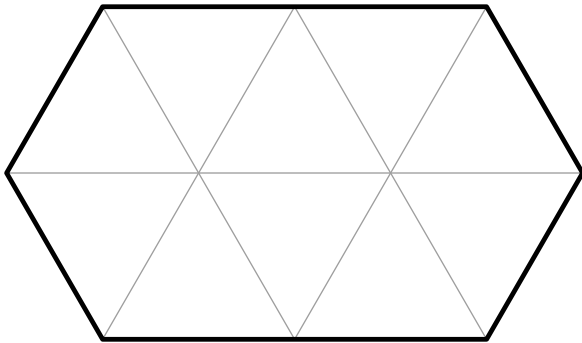

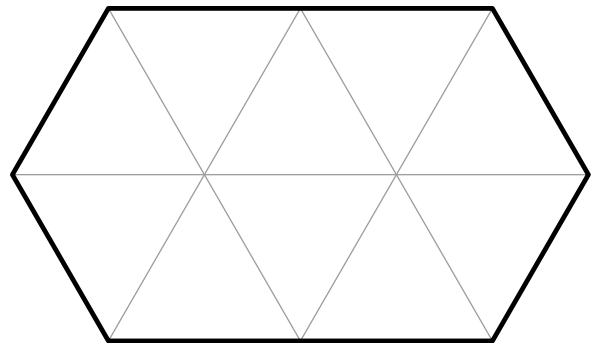

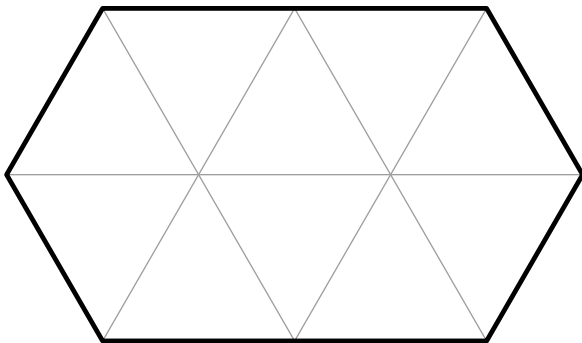

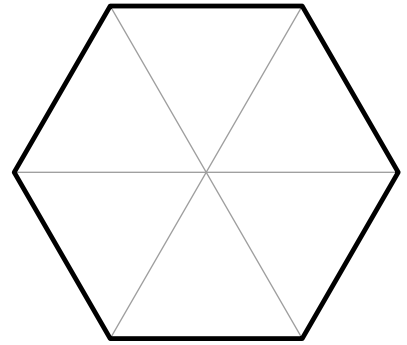

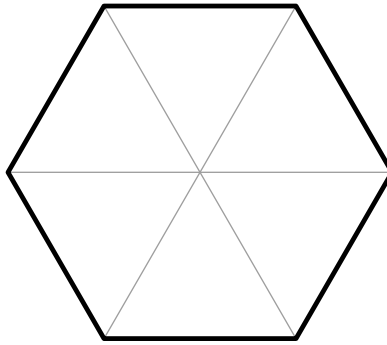

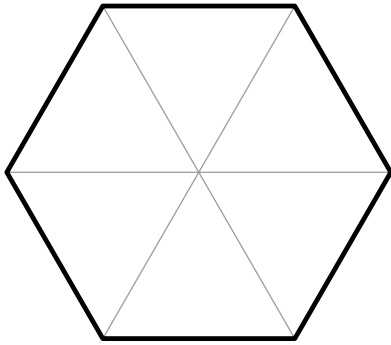

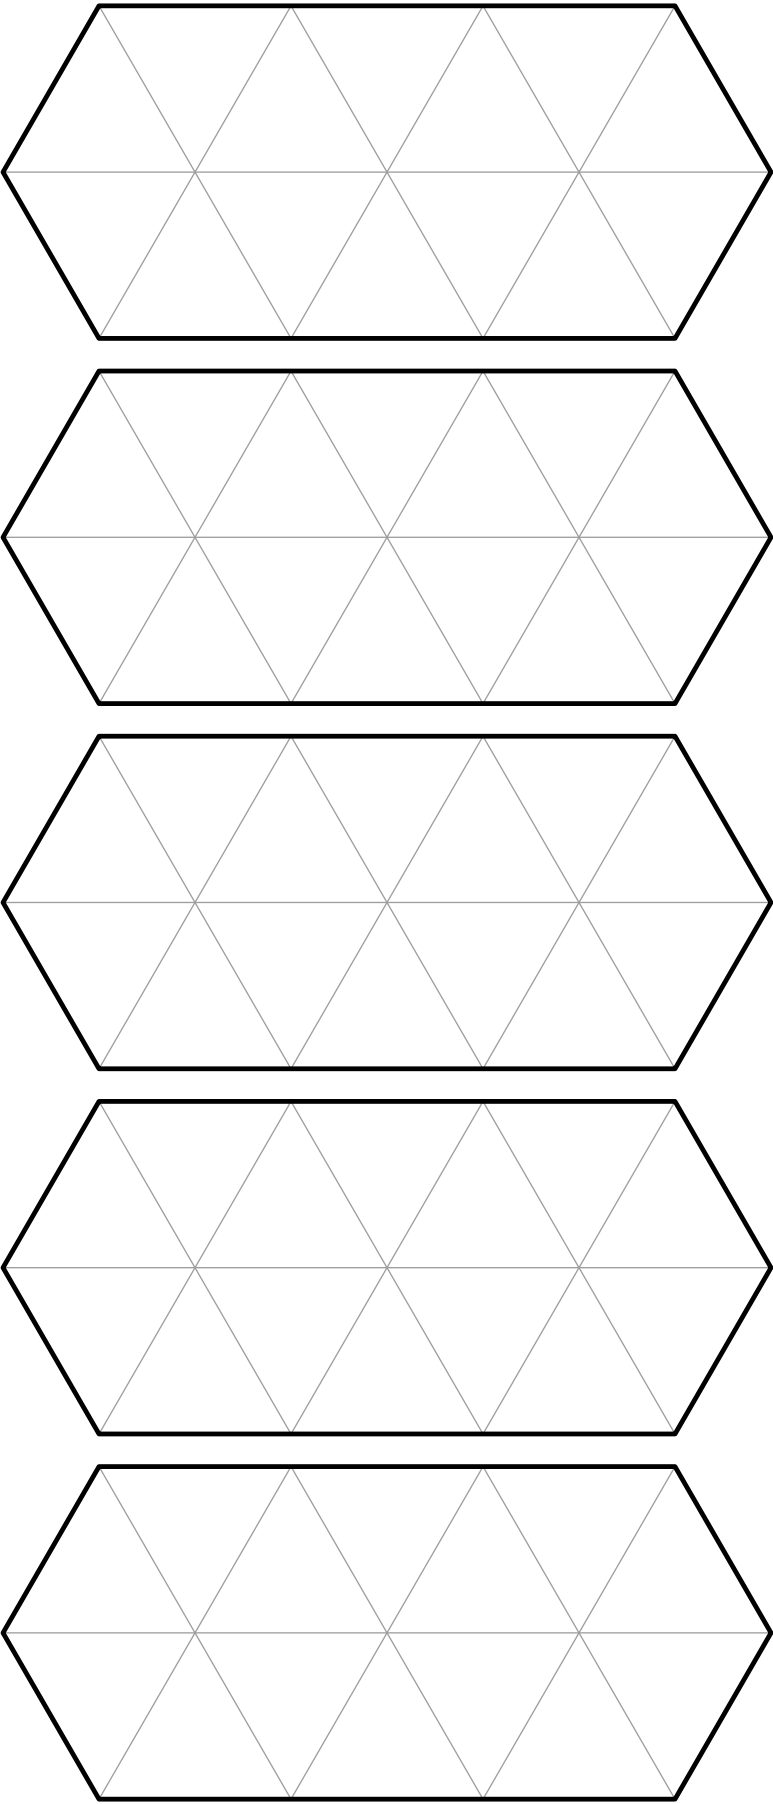

How many greens?

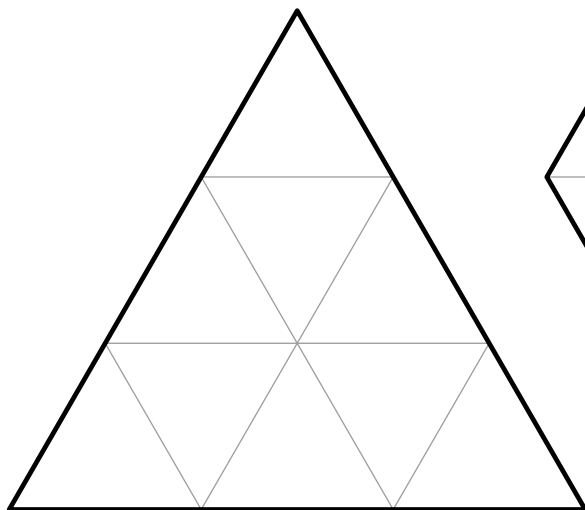

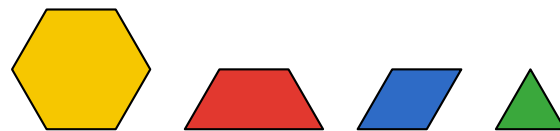

How many greens?

Problem 3: Cover each shape with blue blocks in a different way on each copy. Draw around the blocks to show each way.

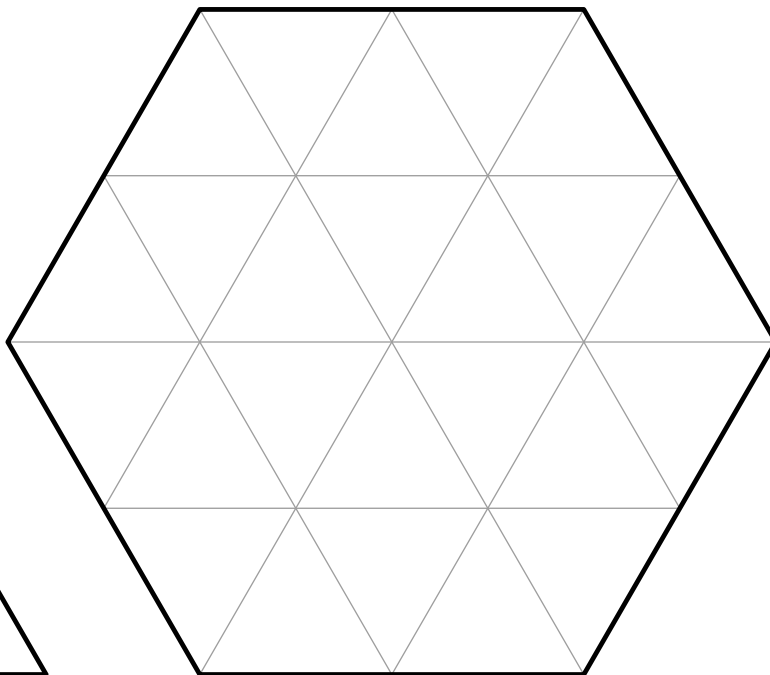

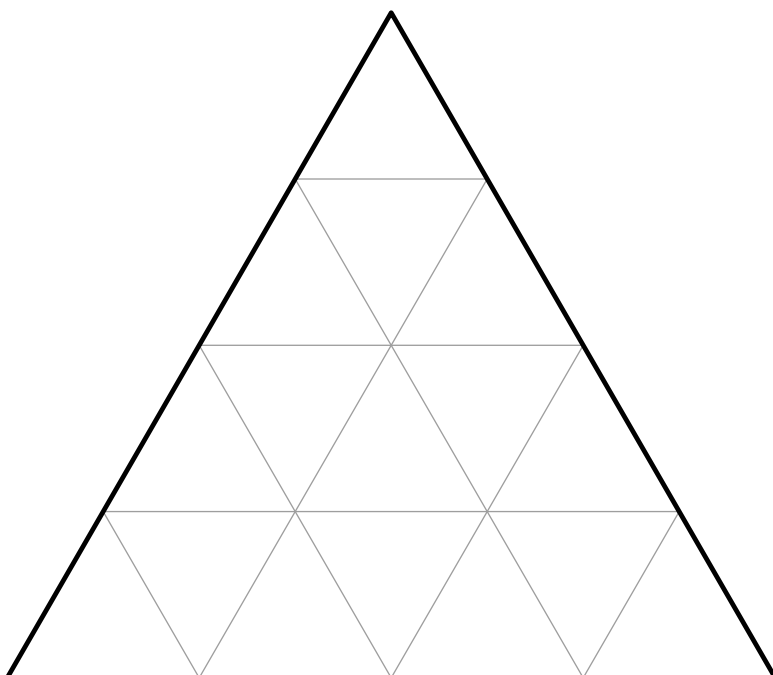

Problem 4: Cover each shape with yellow, red, blue and green blocks. Use as few blocks as you can.

How many blocks?

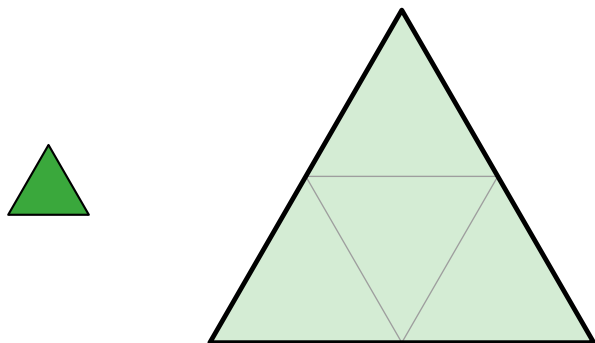

How many blocks?

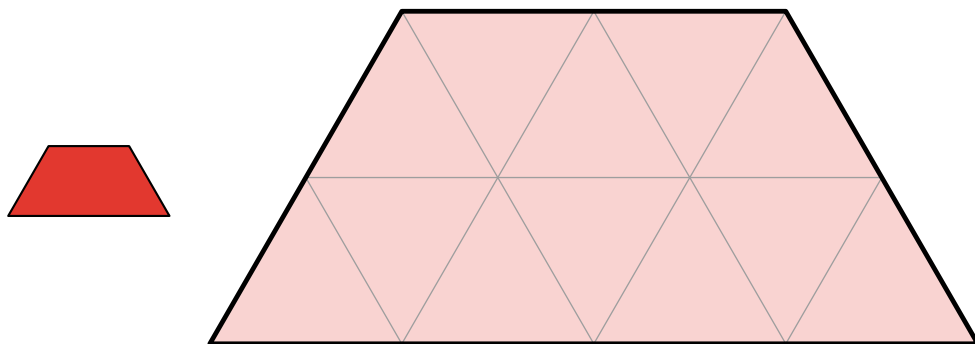

How many blocks?

Problem 5: Make each big shape using only small blocks of its own color. Can you do it?

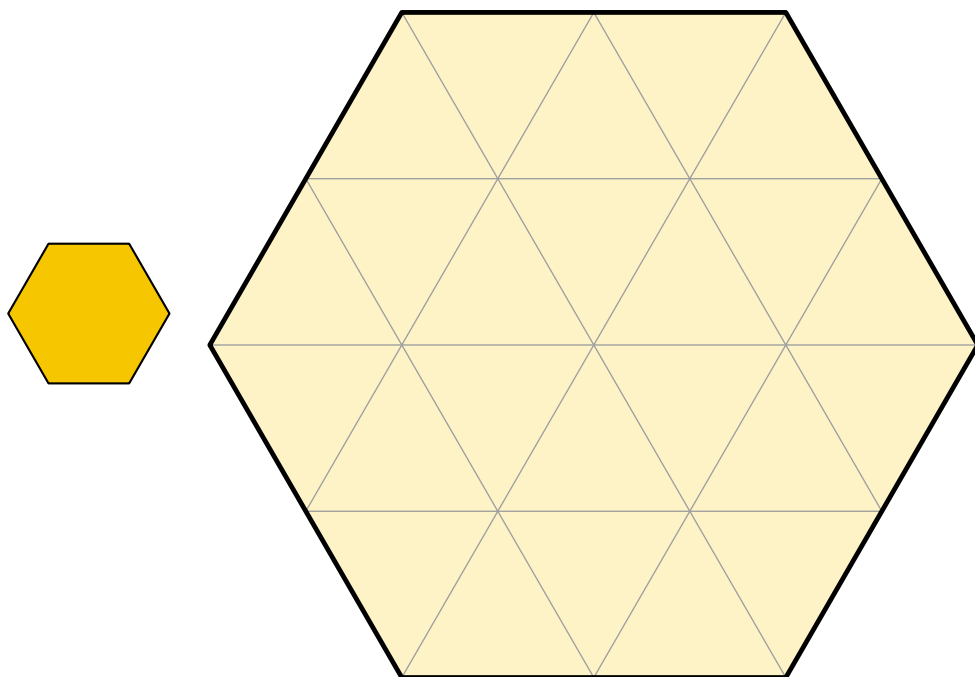

yes no

How many?

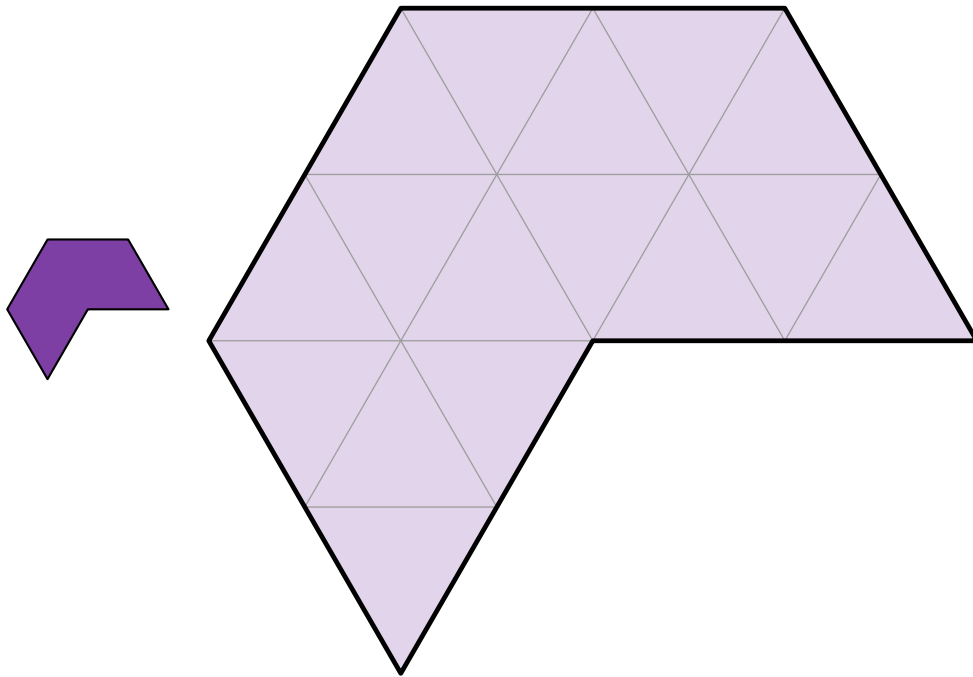

yes no

How many?

yes no

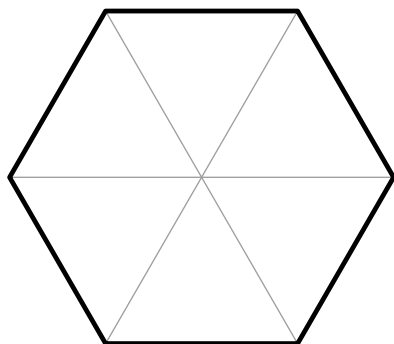

How many?

yes no

How many?

Problem 6: Take turns with a partner putting one blue block on the board; whoever puts down the last block wins. Is it better to go first or second?

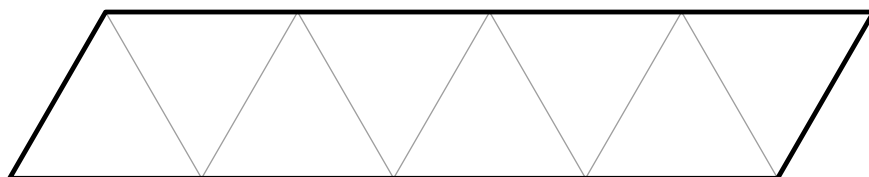

first player won

second player won

better:

first second

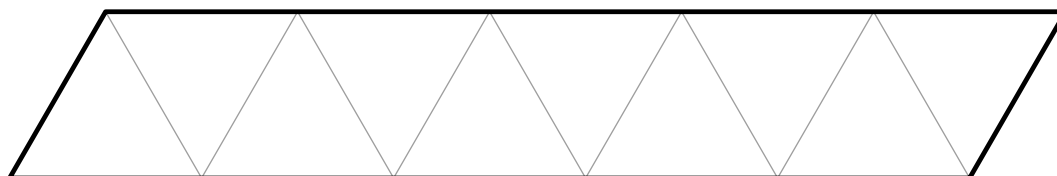

first player won

second player won

better:

first second

first player won

second player won

better:

first second