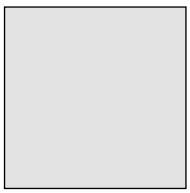
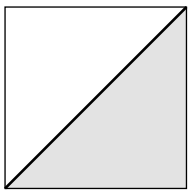
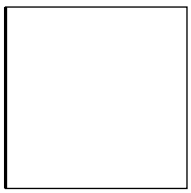
Use whole squares inside the gray shape. Cover all squares with some gray area. A touch at an edge or corner adds no square.



whole

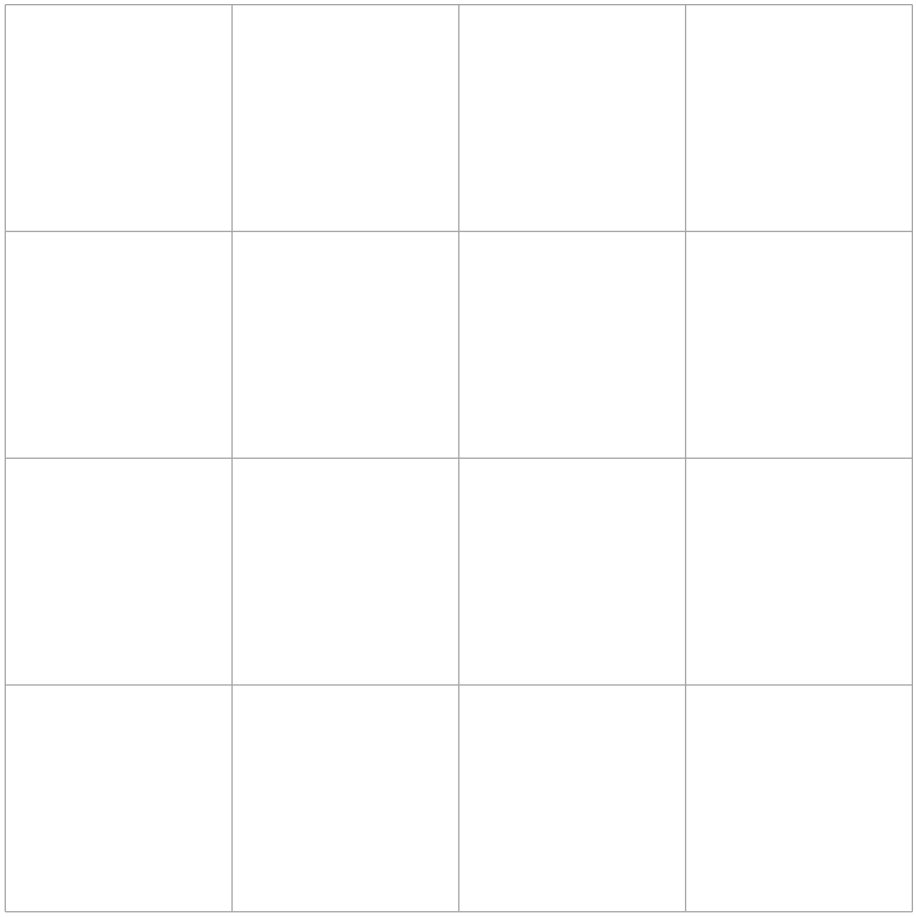


partial



outside

Problem 5: Draw two different shapes, one at a time, with exactly 4 whole gray squares and 4 partly gray squares. Make one area less than 5 big-square units and the other greater than 7.



Problem 6: Could your shape's area be smaller than 4 big squares? Greater than 8? Decide what the square markings guarantee.

One grid square is 1 big-square unit.