Use the marked front when you label folds. M means mountain; V means valley. Fold every ray fully flat. Keep the paper whole, with no extra creases.

Problem 1: Make the four-ray disk close flat in four different ways. Mark each fold's mountains M and valleys V.

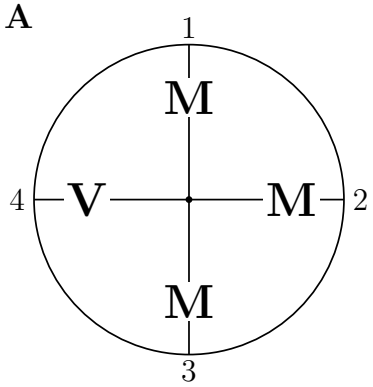

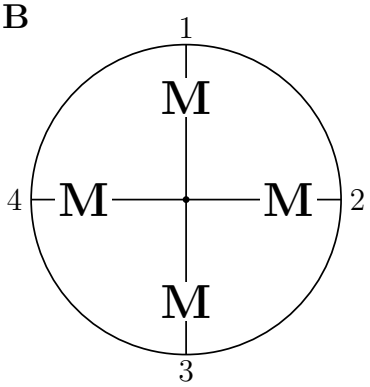

Problem 2: Which of these folds can you make with the four-ray disk? Circle each one you make.

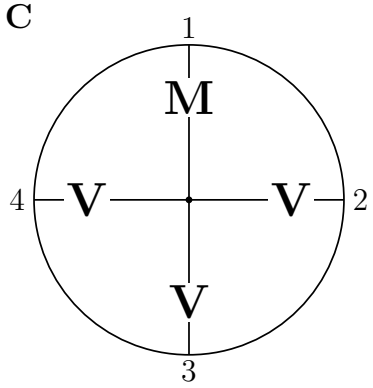

A

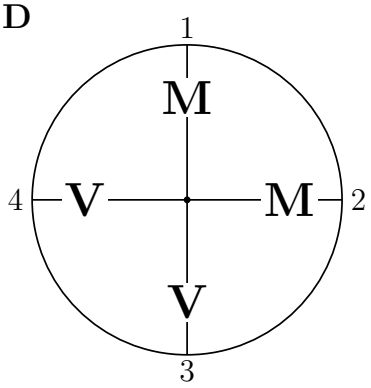

B

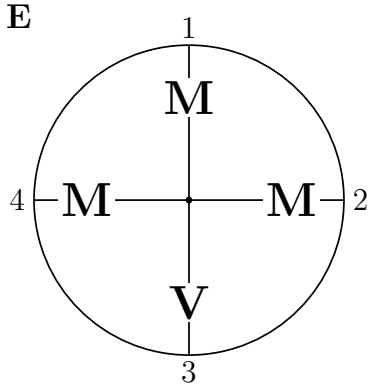

C

D

E

F

