Week 20 / Averaging / Problem menu

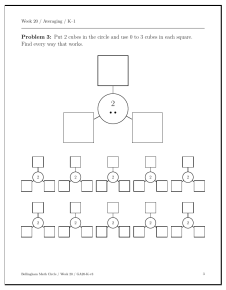

for adults: pick, then print

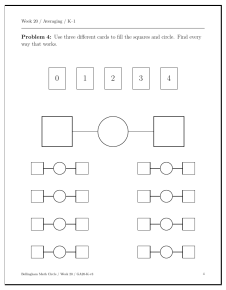

One circle between two squares
K–1 P1
first route

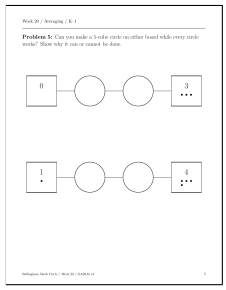

Two circles in a row
K–1 P2
return route

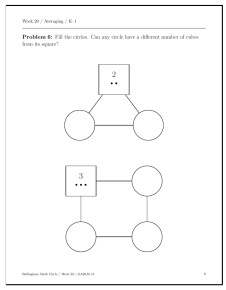

Squares for a 2-cube circle
K–1 P3
first route

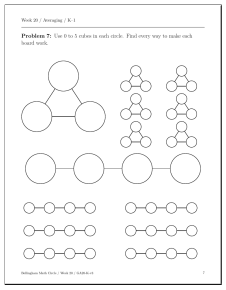

Three different cards
K–1 P4
first route

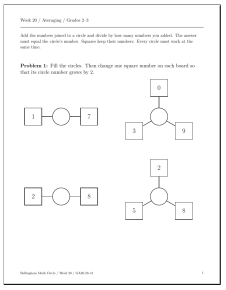

A five-cube circle?
K–1 P5
return route

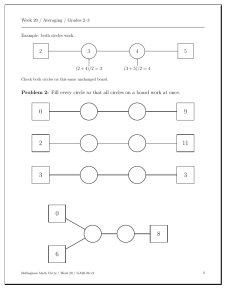

One square controls the board
K–1 P6
return route

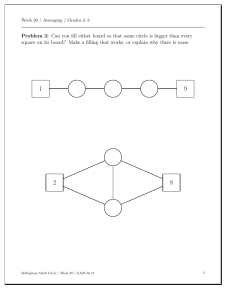

Boards with no squares
K–1 P7
return route

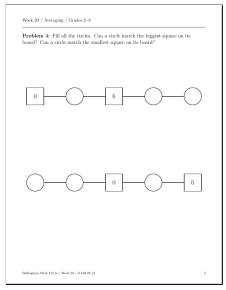

Change one square to raise the circle by 2
Grades 2–3 P1
first route

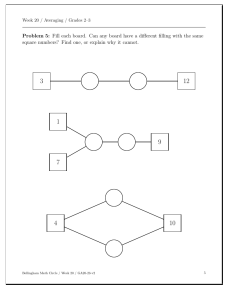

Fill every circle at once
Grades 2–3 P2
first route

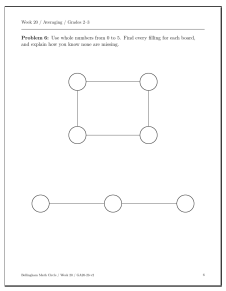

A circle bigger than every square?
Grades 2–3 P3
first route

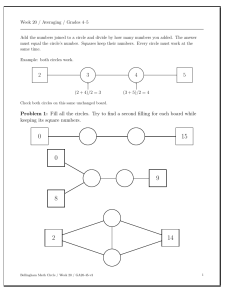

Matching the biggest or smallest square
Grades 2–3 P4
first route

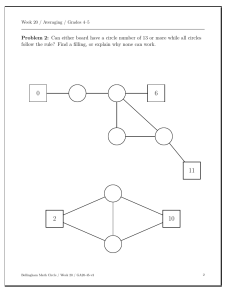

A second filling?
Grades 2–3 P5
return route

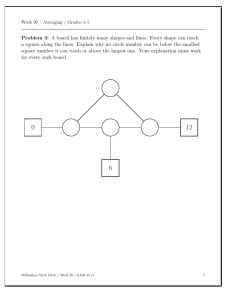

Boards with no squares
Grades 2–3 P6
return route

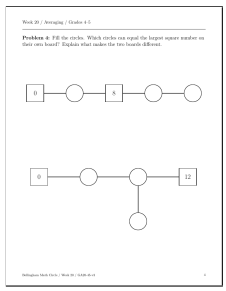

Fill the boards and look for a second filling
Grades 4–5 P1
first route

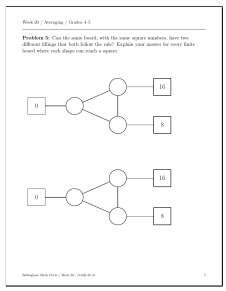

A circle of 13 or more?
Grades 4–5 P2
first route

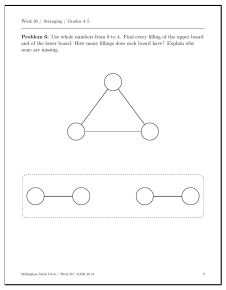

The maximum and minimum principle
Grades 4–5 P3
first route

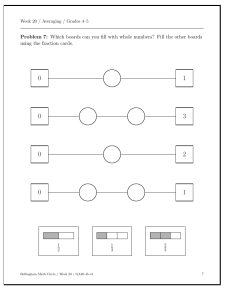

Which circles can equal the largest square?
Grades 4–5 P4
return route

Two different fillings?
Grades 4–5 P5
return route

Five fillings and twenty-five fillings
Grades 4–5 P6
return route

Whole numbers or fractions
Grades 4–5 P7
return route