Week 25 / Row and column shadows / Problem menu

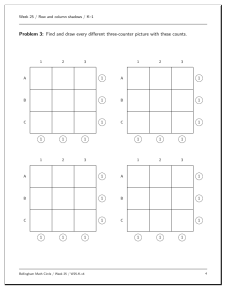

for adults: pick, then print

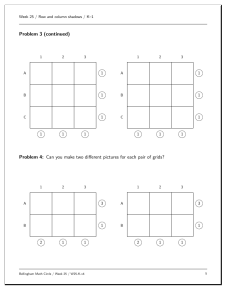

Two different pictures for each pair of counts
K–1 P1
first route

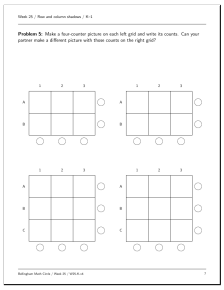

Every picture for rows 1, 2 and for rows 2, 1
K–1 P2
first route

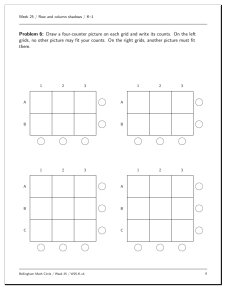

Every three-counter picture with one in each row and column
K–1 P3
first route

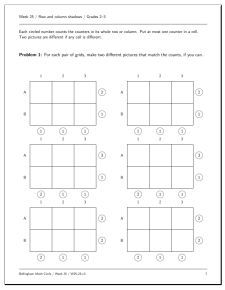

When can two different pictures share the counts?
K–1 P4
first route

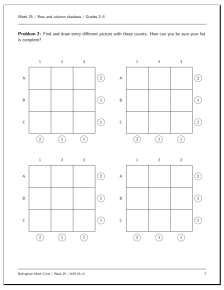

Partner puzzles: make a picture, then find a different one
K–1 P5
return route

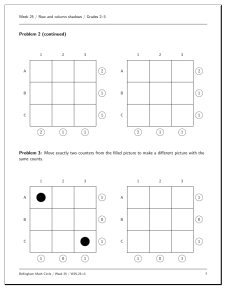

Counts that fit one picture, and counts that fit more
K–1 P6
return route

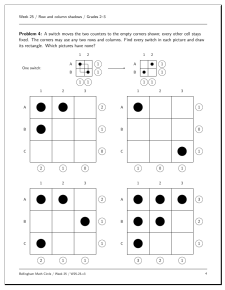

Two matching pictures, if possible
Grades 2–3 P1
first route

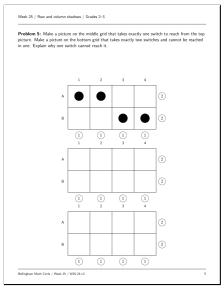

Every picture with row and column counts 2, 1, 1
Grades 2–3 P2
first route

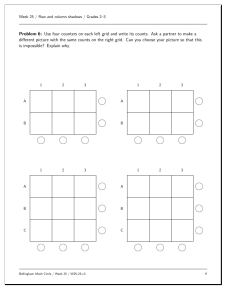

Move two counters, keep the counts
Grades 2–3 P3
first route

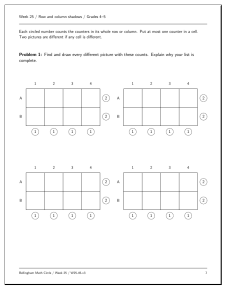

Every switch in four pictures
Grades 2–3 P4
first/return route

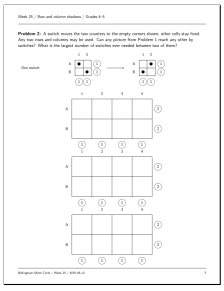

Exactly one switch, exactly two switches
Grades 2–3 P5
return route

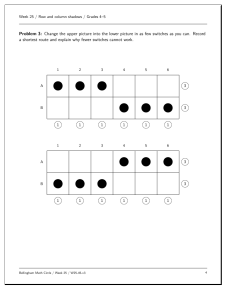

Counts no partner can match with a different picture
Grades 2–3 P6
return route

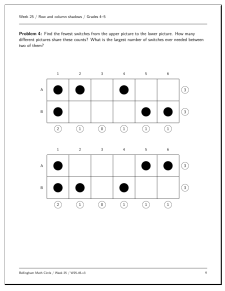

The six two-row pictures
Grades 4–5 P1
first route

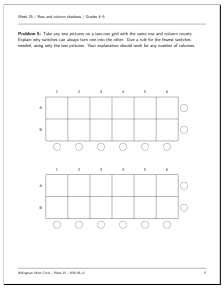

Switch routes among the six pictures
Grades 4–5 P2
first route

A shortest route on six columns
Grades 4–5 P3
first/return route

Fixed columns and four free columns
Grades 4–5 P4
first/return route

The fewest switches on any two-row board
Grades 4–5 P5
return route