Week 16 / Three-color triangles / Problem menu

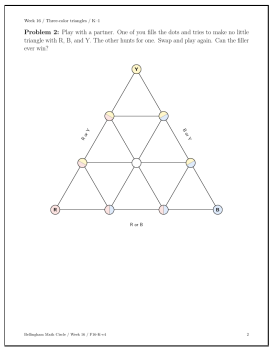

for adults: pick, then print

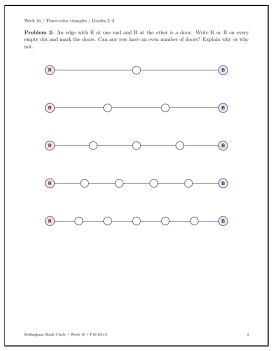

One rainbow triangle in each of four places
K–1 P1
first route

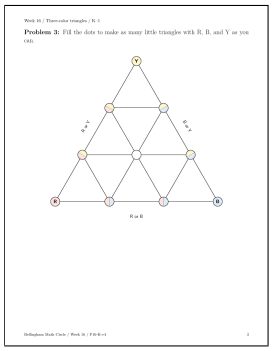

Fewest and most rainbow triangles on the three-step board Grades 2–3 P1 · Grades 4–5 P1
first route
wording differs by band

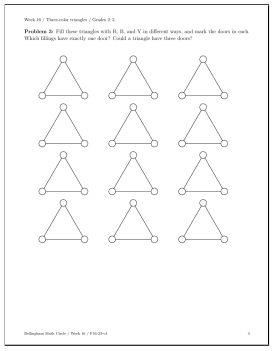

A hiding game: can every rainbow triangle be avoided?
K–1 P2
first route

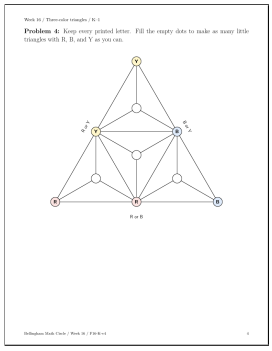

Doors along a row of dots
Grades 2–3 P2 · Grades 4–5 P2
first route
wording differs by band

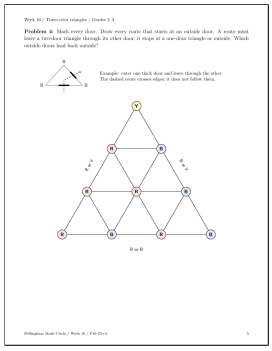

Most rainbow triangles on the three-step board
K–1 P3
first route

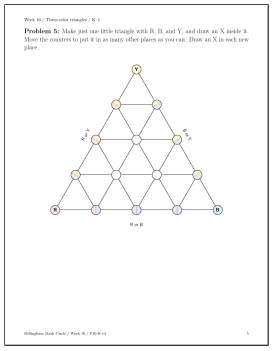

Doors in fillings of one little triangle
Grades 2–3 P3 · Grades 4–5 P3
return route

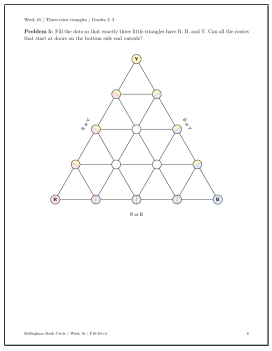

Most rainbow triangles on the fan board
K–1 P4
return route

Doors and routes on a printed filling Grades 2–3 P4 · Grades 4–5 P4
first route
wording differs by band

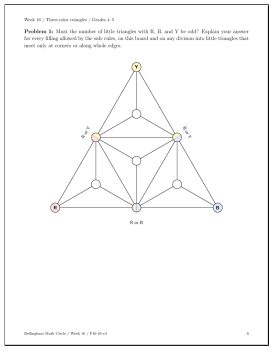

One rainbow triangle in every place on the four-step board
K–1 P5
return route

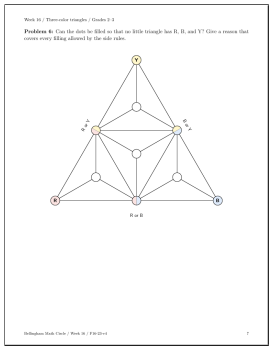

Exactly three rainbow triangles, and the outside routes
Grades 2–3 P5
return route

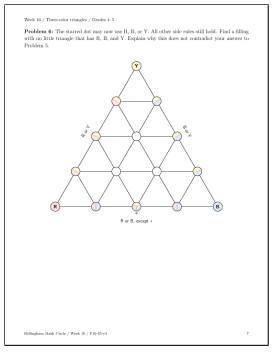

When the bottom side allows Y
K–1 P6
return route

Must the number of rainbow triangles be odd?
Grades 4–5 P5
return route

Can the fan board have none?
Grades 2–3 P6
return route

One starred side dot may use any letter
Grades 4–5 P6
return route