Week 22 / Meeting regions / Problem menu

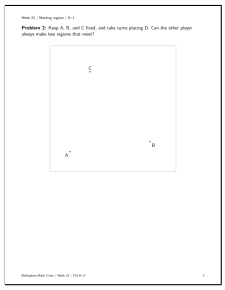

for adults: pick, then print

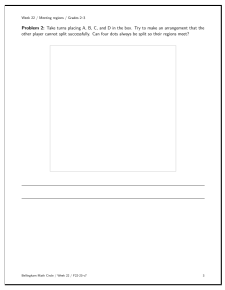

Put D on each cross and make the regions meet
K–1 P1 · Grades 2–3 P1 · Grades 4–5 P1
first route
wording differs by band

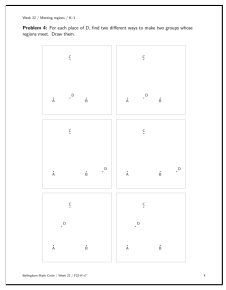

Every meeting split of four dots on a line
Grades 4–5 P2
first route

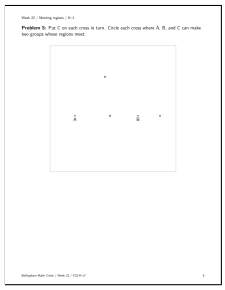

Place D against a fixed triangle
K–1 P2
first route

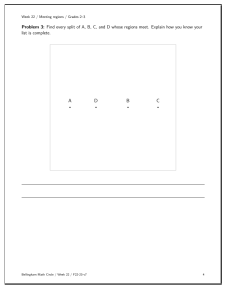

The placing game: can four dots always be split?
K–1 P3 · Grades 2–3 P2 · Grades 4–5 P3
first route
wording differs by band

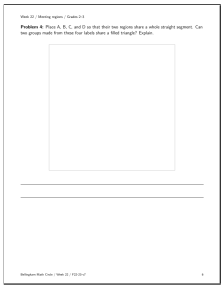

Two meeting groupings for three places of D
K–1 P4
first route

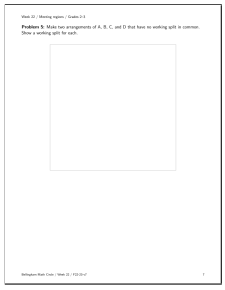

Which crosses for C make two regions meet?
K–1 P5
return route

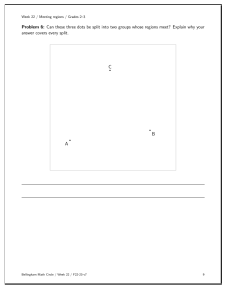

Meeting splits of four dots on a line
K–1 P6 · Grades 2–3 P3
K-1 return; 2-3 first route
wording differs by band

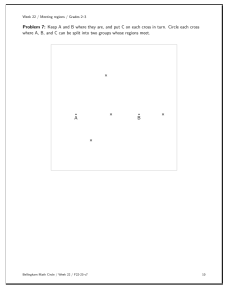

A shared segment, but never a shared filled triangle
Grades 2–3 P4
first route

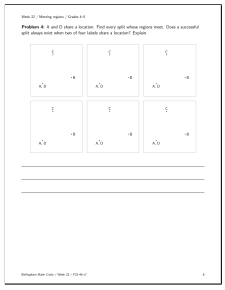

Two arrangements with no common working split
Grades 2–3 P5
first route

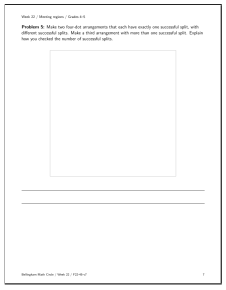

Three dots with no meeting split
Grades 2–3 P6
return route

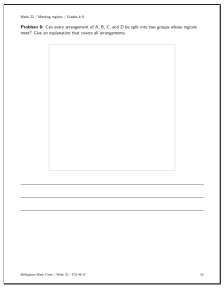

Which crosses for C give a meeting split?
Grades 2–3 P7
return route

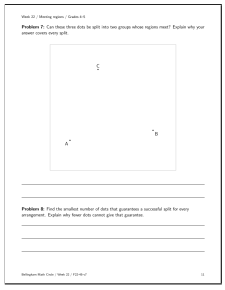

Two labels at one point
Grades 4–5 P4
return route

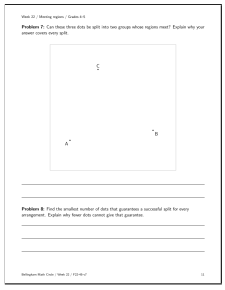

Arrangements with one, and more than one, working split
Grades 4–5 P5
return route

Can every arrangement be split?
Grades 4–5 P6
return route

Three dots with no meeting split
Grades 4–5 P7
return route

The smallest number of dots that guarantees a split
Grades 4–5 P8
return route