Week 5 / Tower cities / Problem menu

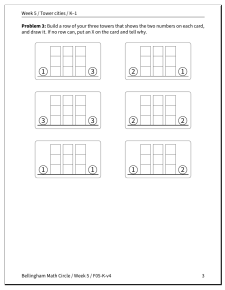

for adults: pick, then print

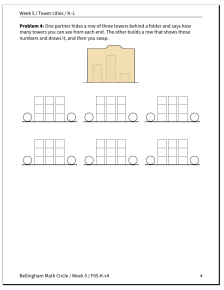

Build two rows and count what you see
K–1 P1
first route

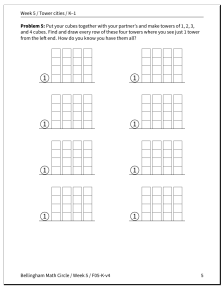

Every way to stand three towers
K–1 P2
first route

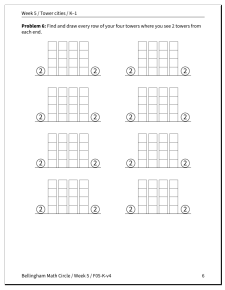

A row for each card, or an X
K–1 P3
first route

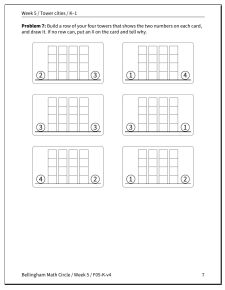

The hidden-row game
K–1 P4
first route

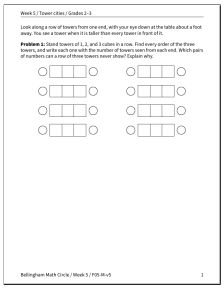

Four towers: just 1 seen from the left
K–1 P5
return route

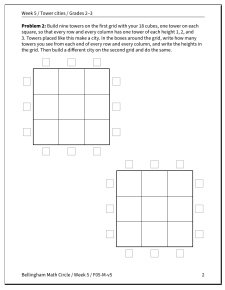

Four towers: 2 seen from each end
K–1 P6
return route

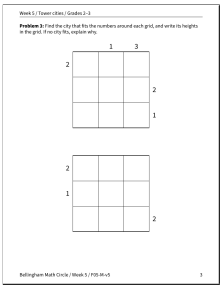

Four towers: a row for each card, or an X
K–1 P7
return route

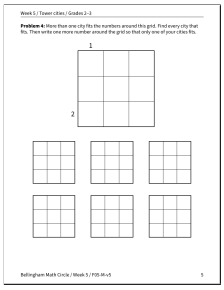

Every order of three towers and its two numbers
Grades 2–3 P1
first route

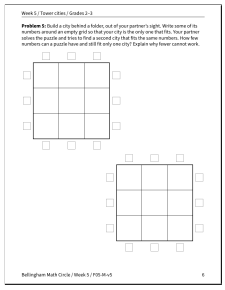

Build two 3-by-3 cities
Grades 2–3 P2
first route

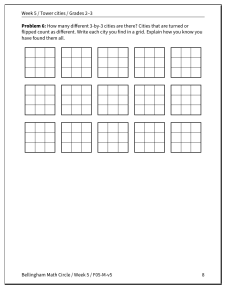

Four city puzzles (one has no city)
Grades 2–3 P3
first route

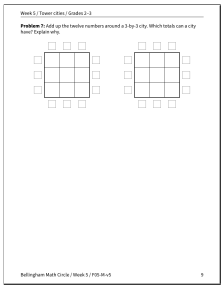

Every city that fits, then one more number
Grades 2–3 P4
first route

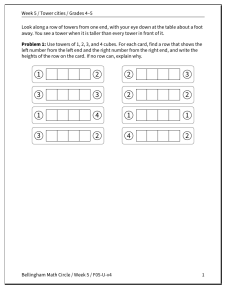

A puzzle for a partner: how few numbers?
Grades 2–3 P5
return route

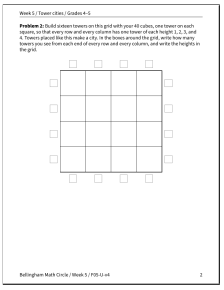

How many 3-by-3 cities?
Grades 2–3 P6
return route

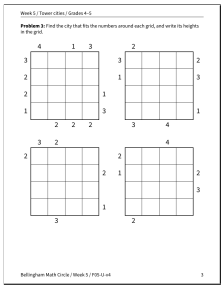

Totals of the twelve numbers
Grades 2–3 P7
return route

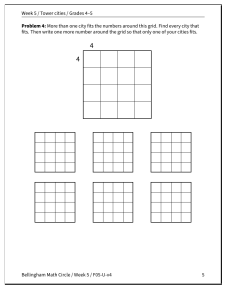

Rows of four for eight cards
Grades 4–5 P1
first route

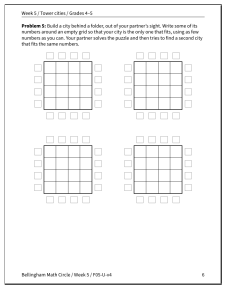

Build a 4-by-4 city
Grades 4–5 P2
first route

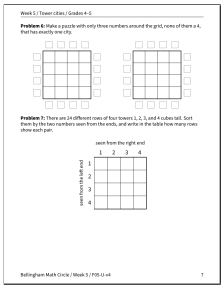

The ladder: six puzzles
Grades 4–5 P3
first route

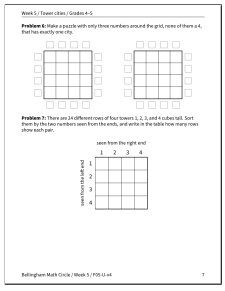

Every city that fits two 4s, then one more number
Grades 4–5 P4
first route

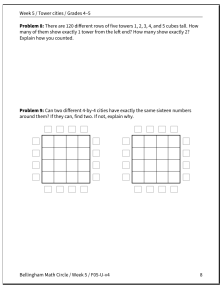

A puzzle for a partner with few numbers
Grades 4–5 P5
return route

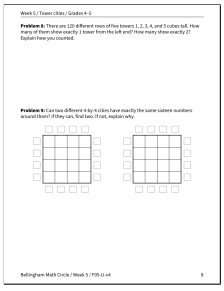

Three numbers, none a 4, one city
Grades 4–5 P6
return route

Sort the 24 rows of four by their two numbers
Grades 4–5 P7
return route

Rows of five: exactly 1 or 2 from the left
Grades 4–5 P8
return route

Two cities with the same sixteen numbers?
Grades 4–5 P9
return route